Progressive Global Governance: a Non-Eurocentric View

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31st, 2012
4:00 p.m.
MOSHER ALUMNI HOUSE, ALUMNI HALL

CRAIG MURPHY is M. Margaret Ball Professor of International Relations at Wellesley College and Professor of Global Governance at the University of Massachusetts Boston. He is past-president of the International Studies Association (ISA) and past-chair of the Academic Council on the UN System. His books include International Organization and Industrial Change: Global Governance since 1850 (1994, 2004) and The UN Development Program: A Better Way? (2006).

Presented by THE MELLICHAMP ENDOWED PROFESSORS IN GLOBAL STUDIES and the ORFALEA CENTER FOR GLOBAL & INTERNATIONAL STUDIES.