

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA BARBARA

MASTERS IN GLOBAL STUDIES

The University of California at Santa Barbara offers a two-year Master of Arts in Global Studies. This cutting-edge, interdisciplinary program was launched in 2006 and has been highly successful in training students to think critically about the challenges of the 21st century. Generous fellowship packages are available on a competitive basis.

The curriculum includes three areas of specialization:

- 1) Global Political Economy, Sustainable Development, Environment
- 2) Global Culture, Ideology, and Religion
- 3) Global Governance, Human Rights, and Civil Society

The MA degree is intended to provide an understanding of the political, social, cultural and economic forces that are shaping global societies, institutions and organizations.

WHY DO A MASTERS IN GLOBAL STUDIES?

Students pursue the MA degree as preparation for working in private and public sectors as well as academia. Many graduates go on to PhD programs, law schools, careers in non-governmental organizations (NGOs), business and government.

In addition to the MA degree, UCSB also offers a PhD in Global Studies. <http://www.global.ucsb.edu/phd>

"If there's a more beautiful campus than this one at the edge of the Pacific, we haven't seen it," said Newsweek.

Fellowship Opportunities

Fellowships and paid teaching and research opportunities are offered each year to support students. All applicants are also eligible for UCSB campus-wide multi-year fellowships.
